CHAPTER 165.

[Published March 16, 1876.]

AN ACT conferring certain powers upon the town board of supervisors of the town of Bayfield, Bayfield county.

The people of the State of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. The board of supervisors of the town of Bayfield are hereby authorized to construct sewers and drains along the public streets and alley-ways in the village of Bayfield, in the town of Bayfield, for the purpose of carrying waste water from public hydrants, and to provide proper sewerage for the village of Bayfield; provided, however, that at the annual town meeting, the electors of said town of Bayfield shall order the same done, and vote to raise a tax for the purpose named in this section. Authority of town board to construct sewers and drains.

SECTION 2. The town board of supervisors of the town of Bayfield are hereby authorized to annually levy a tax sufficient to pay the Bayfield Hydraulic Company for the use of hydrants, and water used from the same, at fires; provided, however, that said tax shall not exceed one mill on the dollar valuation of the property of said town. Authority to levy special tax.

SECTION 3. This act shall take effect on and after its passage and publication.

Approved March 8, 1876.
